

University of California, Berkeley

To Contractors, Consultants & Suppliers,

The following websites have helpful information for Contractors, Consultants and Suppliers interested in working for the University:

* * *

UC Berkeley, Capital Projects Department

Interested in construction or design work at the University of California, Berkeley? Capital Projects manages the planning, design, construction, retrofitting, and restoration of campus buildings and their surroundings.

<http://www.cp.berkeley.edu/>

This website provides:

- Lists of current RFPs and RFQs
- Projects being advertised pursuant to public law
- The Construction Design Standards for the Berkeley campus
- Contract and Agreement examples
- Information for Contractors
- Information for Consultants, and Design Professionals. This includes The University of California annual advertisement for services with a contract value of $100,000 or less in the areas of architectural, landscape architectural, engineering, environmental, land surveying, construction management, or other facility related services.

Interested in working as a subcontractor? Check the Daily Pacific Builder for advertisements by prime contractors looking for subs.

* * *

University of California, Small Business Development

It is the policy of the University of California, consistent with state and federal law, to ensure that all business enterprises have equal access to business contracting opportunities at the University.

<http://www.ucop.edu/purchserv/smallbus.html>

This website contains information on:

- Becoming a Supplier for The University of California Office of the President (UCOP),
- Small Business Frequently Asked Questions, and
- University Policies and Procedures.

* * *

UC Berkeley, Purchasing Operations Department, Small Business Development Program

About the Small Business Program

It is the policy of the University of California, consistent with state and federal law, to ensure that all business enterprises have equal access to business contracting opportunities at the University. Accordingly, the Small Business Program, a part of Purchasing Operations, abides by that policy in serving the Berkeley campus.

The Small Business Program is responsible for:

- acting as a liaison between the University and the small business community
- identifying viable small businesses which can provide the goods and services used to support the functions of the University

<http://businessservices.berkeley.edu/HtmFiles/PurchOpsSmBusAdmin.htm>

This website provides:

- Contacts for small business organizations interested in doing business with the University
- UC business policies governing the purchase of goods and services,
- Business Information Form (BIF) - An important form that must be completed by all firms or individuals proposing to do business with the University

Thank you for your interest in the University of California!